COVER

It's red and green and lots of other colors, too; it's a shiny new fire engine surrounded by dirty, broken toys; it's teen-age boys working like beavers—and thoroughly enjoying themselves. It's Good Turn time and just about everybody is going to get something out of it. Lots of children will be happy with unexpected, almost-like-new toys. The fire department will be glad it offered space as a repair shop. That gray-haired Advisor already is feeling mighty proud of his boys. And those green-clad Explorers have a better idea of what "service" means, and they'll end up with a healthy helping of satisfaction. Yes, sir, everything is going great—until the fire alarm rings, that is.
